

Accolades from Eminent Personalities

"To Link Farmers health – market, a sustainable approach ,is excellent .I'm sure, it will help the poor farmers to improve their life for their families ,their children. I hope that also other people ,Country ,can learn of this new approach of e-learning, Knowledge management"

Dr. Phil. Stefanie Burri , Swiss Development Agency for Cooperation

"I looked to at this website some time back and I must Commend you all for the excellence you have accomplished in production of this website."

Shri. R.G. Dheshpande, World bank

"We are pleased to share with you that USAID has selected Rythu Ratham Success Story to publish on their website"

USAID

eFresh is of great interest

Dr. Mihir Shah Member, Planning Commission, Govt. of India

" While researching about the topics for increasing agri yields and urban farming, I found out or rather stumbled upon eFresh India great initiative and knew this is a One Shot Solution to these problems around globe and it is my belief that this has to be taken up on a large scale, lest on a world wide level "

Mr. Chayan Kaushal , Director Operations and Sustainability Council – Indian School of Business

Very good presentation and business model. Very very good initiative. Nice and good initiative."

Delegates from Mali